

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS OF THE
GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE SOCIETY OF THE CHURCH OF GOD IN JAMAICA

Incorporated under Law 47 of 1942

PREAMBLE: We the members of the Society of the Church of God in Jamaica, assembled for The Extra-ordinary General Assembly on October 30, 2004 at The Cleve Grant Building, 93B Constant Spring Road, Kingston 10, agree on the adoption of the following Constitution and By-Laws, this amended the By-Law No.24 of 1974

ARTICLE I – NAME

The name of this body is and shall be the General Assembly of the Society of the Church of God in Jamaica.

ARTICLE II – PURPOSE

The purpose of this General Assembly is:

1. To act as a body in conducting the Annual General Assembly meetings, and any other meeting of the General Assembly.
2. To determine and develop general policies and to authorize the establishment and maintenance of duly constituted boards and other agencies as are necessary for the effective functioning of the Church of God in Jamaica and in its international relations, in keeping with the national mission statement of the Society of the Church of God in Jamaica (hereinafter “the Church”).

ARTICLE III – SCOPE

This General Assembly shall be regarded as a voluntary association of nominated members, and shall be the highest decision making authority in the Church responsible to provide leadership to the Church, sustaining the vision in respect of counsel, worship, doctrine and administration, including good financial and resource management. It shall use the power vested in it by the congregations to regulate the smooth operation of the Church’s business in general, and that of the congregations in particular. It shall have the right to define its membership by declaring when individual ministers, members, or congregations are not recognized by the General Assembly as adhering to the general principles to which the General Assembly itself is committed. The powers and responsibilities of the General Assembly shall be vested in the Executive Council between Annual General Assemblies.

ARTICLE IV – MEMBERSHIP

The members of this General Assembly shall be all Pastors (ordained and unordained) and their spouses, serving the Church, the Officers of the General Assembly, Elders and Deacons serving their respective congregations, Commissioned Evangelists, Chairman of each Subordinate Board, Chairman of each Regional Council, the Regional Director of the Caribbean Atlantic Assembly, the Delegates from each congregation, Christian Education Director, Presidents of the Women of the Church of God, Men of the Church of God, and of the National Youth Council, The Chairmen of the Board of Governors of the Ardenne High School, the Ardenne Preparatory and Extension High School, the Leadership Training Institute, the Harrison Memorial Home for the Aged and the Church of God Home for Girls or their nominees either of whom shall be a member of the Church, such members being present at any regular business meeting of the General Assembly.

ALL OF THE ABOVE CATEGORIES SHALL BE MEMBERS OF THE CHURCH IN GOOD AND REGULAR STANDING.

This General Assembly shall have the right to add to its membership any person who obtains a two-thirds majority vote of the members present and voting. Such members of the Church shall be added on the first day of that particular General Assembly for its duration and must be present at the regular business meeting in which the voting takes place.

Those congregations that are recognized as belonging to the fellowship of the Church and, as such, subscribe to the Biblical doctrines as taught by the said Church and whose properties are vested in the Society of the Church of God in Jamaica and are actively involved in executing programmes for the fulfillment of its mission and the financing of the work in accordance with the mandate of the General Assembly, shall have the right to elect and send delegates from its own membership to the General Assembly in accordance with the following:

Two for the first fifty members or fraction thereof and one for each additional fifty members or fraction thereof.

Written credentials issued by the Secretary or the Pastor of each congregation shall be presented or sent to the Secretary of the General Assembly certifying who are the delegates elected.

ARTICLE V – MEETINGS

This Assembly shall meet annually, at any location, within the Island of Jamaica. The date and place of meeting shall be determined by the General Assembly or the Executive Council. However, the Executive Council (EXCO) may call Extra-Ordinary meetings of the General Assembly at its discretion or at the request to EXCO, of at least two-thirds of the number of regions.

ARTICLE VI – AMENDMENTS

Section 1. This constitution may be amended at any regular business meeting of the Annual General Assembly by a two-thirds majority present, provided that the proposed amendment:

- 1) Be submitted to the General Assembly through the Executive Council in writing signed by at least one hundred (100) members of the Assembly not less than four (4) clear months before the meeting of the General Assembly.
- 2) Be circulated to all congregations of the Church at least three (3) clear months before the next General Assembly in writing signed by at least one hundred (100) members of the Assembly not less than four (4) clear months before the meeting of the General Assembly.
- 3) Be not enacted, altered or repealed on the same day on which it is brought to the floor of the Assembly. The General Assembly shall determine the effective date of enactment of said amendment(s).

Section 2. This Assembly may make and alter By-Laws at any regular business meeting by a two-thirds vote of members present and voting; provided that no new By-Laws shall be enacted and no By-Laws altered or repealed on the same day on which the change is proposed, and provided further that all proposed amendments to the By-Laws must be submitted through the Executive Council to the Annual General Assembly in writing and signed by one hundred (100) members of the Assembly not less than four (4) clear months before the meeting of the General Assembly.

BY-LAWS

- (c) Two shall be elected by the General Assembly annually.
- (d) The Christian Education Director

- (e) The Executive Chairman
- (f) National Treasurer, and the
- (g) Chairman of the Ministers' Conference

This Committee shall make plans for, and function until the close of the General Assembly of the year following its selection. These plans shall include the appointment of a programme sub-committee for any special meetings as may be necessary, and it shall also recommend speakers to the Executive Council for the Annual General Assembly.

This Committee shall be responsible for all physical arrangements in connection with the General Assembly meetings, including the housing and boarding of delegates and other participants.

4. Ordination Committee

An Ordination Committee of seven (7) ordained ministers in good and regular standing shall be appointed by the Ministers' Conference and ratified by the General Assembly to serve one year to the close of the Assembly in the year following their selection.

The main duties of this committee shall be to:

- (a) Consider the advisability of any person being installed to the pastorate of a local congregation, to receive any applications or recommendations to that end from congregations, and if the Committee considers it proper, to arrange for the installation of such person to the pastorate.
- (b) Consider the advisability of any person being ordained to the ministry, to receive any applications or recommendations to that end from congregations or ministers, and if the committee considers it proper, to arrange for the ordination of such person to the ministry, either at the General Assembly or some other suitable place and time.
- (c) Investigate charges against Pastors within a period of one month of the date they were preferred. After due consideration, on the basis of their findings, make a recommendation regarding his status to the Ministers' Conference for decision. The Ministers' Conference shall report the decision taken to the Executive Council for action.

However, if the Pastor is dissatisfied with the decision he shall have the right of appeal to the Ministers' Conference, which shall hear the case and report its findings to the Executive Council, who will review the case and make a final decision.

If his conduct is deemed unworthy of the ministry, the General Assembly shall cease to recognize him as a Minister of the Church, until there is full restoration to the Ministers' Conference.

- (d) Provide guidance to congregations and Pastors regarding the ordination of deacons, should there be a need for the committee's assistance.

NOTE:

It is understood that deacons are commissioned by ordained Ministers ONLY for the congregations wherein they serve.

Section 2. Special Committees

- (a) Special Committees may be appointed by the General Assembly, or the Executive Chairman, or the Executive Council, or Sub-ordinate Boards and Committees, or Associations as the need arises, and in such manner as the General Assembly may determine.
- (b) Any member of the Church in good and regular standing is eligible to serve on such committees.
- (c) All such committees terminate at the close of the General Assembly following the one in which they were appointed, unless otherwise ordered by the General Assembly.
- (d) Special committees shall consist of five (5) persons unless otherwise stated.
- (e) A convenor shall be appointed for each committee by the appointing entity.

Special Note:

The Executive Council shall ensure the effective functioning of all Boards and Committees and to this end shall have the power to co-opt such persons as may be necessary to achieve that goal.

ARTICLE VI – ASSOCIATION
